

EP3 - the third wave of Environmental Practice

Brisbane Program – Thursday 30 August 2007

Time	Presentation	Presenter			Company
9.00	Welcome and scene setting	Mr	Bill	Haylock	EIANZ
9.15	The importance of the environmental profession – what it means to protect the environment for future generations. The pace of change/the cost of change.	Ms	Rosemary	Menkens	Shadow Minister for the Environment
9.30	What are the future issues in the environment? Big picture futurist issues.		TBC
10.00	Current Global and Economic Impacts – what is the true role of Environmental Professionals?	Dr	Neil	Kirkpatrick	Associate Director, Arup UK.
10.30	Morning Tea
11.00	Changing skills sets. What skills will Environmental Professionals need in 5, 10, 20 years time? Are professionals required to be more generalists or more specialists? How do key policy areas (water, climate change, sustainability, and energy) inform other areas of environmental practice?		TBC
11.20	What will be the key drivers for business in the future and how can we use these to achieve the best practice outcomes for the Environment? What will be the role of the Environmental Practitioner in 5, 10, 20 years and what are the business opportunities that will arise?		TBC
11.40	Panel discussion.
12.15	Lunch
1.15	Overview – Current state of play – where are we going in the future		TBC
1.35	EIANZ Position Papers – What are they, what is EIANZ doing to raise the benchmarks for Environmental Professionals	Mr	Bill	Haylock	EIANZ
2.00	Case Study – Emerging Technologies		TBC
2.30	Case Study – Carbon Trading	Ms	Fiona	Waterhouse
3.00	Afternoon Tea
3.40	Case Study – Water		TBC
4.10	Case Study – Sustainable Business Practice		TBC
4.45	Closing remarks with celebratory comments	Mr	Bill	Haylock	EIANZ
5.00	Celebration Drinks				